March of Dimes Collections High

Although all proceeds from the March of Dimes Campaign are not in yet, Mrs. Ernest Spiegl, Chairman of the Drive, reported yesterday that Orinda will do as well this year as last year.

From boxes in the various stores, $106.78 was collected.

Complete report has not been obtained from school collections, but it will come to around $400, Mrs. Spiegl predicted.

The Orinda Theater sent in a check for $319.00 from collections from patrons.

The Cub Scouts netted $105.85 from hand made articles sold at the Orinda Theater last weekend.

Orinda Cub Pack Earns $105 for March of Dimes

Orinda Cub Pack 32 has completed another big project. The boys worked for the past month making useful and attractive articles for the home and held a sale January 29, 30 and 31 in the Theater lobby.

Mrs. Dan Lucas, chairman of the sale, announces that the proceeds amounting to $105.85 have already been turned over to the "March of Dimes."

The boys worked hard to put this sale over and are to be congratulated on their success.

"We wish to thank the management of the Orinda Theater for letting the Cubs take over the lobby on those three nights. Also we wish to thank the generous people of Orinda and Lafayette who came in and helped the Cubs put over their big sale," Mrs. Lucas said.

Don Fives Play Antioch Friday

Acalanes cagers will meet the John Swett Indians at Acalanes Friday at 7:30 p.m.

In the first game with John Swett the Don varsity triumphed 39 to 30. The B's lost their game with Crockett 18 to 17.

The B game will be one of the most hotly contested games this season, as the two teams are now tied for first place with four victories and one defeat each.

It is probable that winner of this B game will probably be the C.C.C.A.L. champion in the B division.

In the A game, the Acalanes Dons will be highly favored.

Your Garden

By

Constance Hansen

Although a partner in a small "backyard" nursery business, Mrs. Hansen has the approach of an amateur. A Cal grad in Botany, she has tilled the soil here for the past 8 years.

Last Friday milions of people throughout the world paid silent tribute to the memory of the founder of the MARCH OF DIMES, our late president Franklin D. Roosevelt. Himself a victim of infantile paralysis, Mr. Roosevelt founded the great humanitarian movement which pledges that "no person afflicted with infantile paralysis shall go without medical care and treatment regardless of age, race, creed or color." With your help—your Dollars and Dimes—this pledge will remain unbroken. PLEASE return your March of Dimes coin folder to Mrs. Ernest Spiegl in Orinda or Herman Silverman in Lafayette or March of Dimes headquarters, Richmond.

Dr. Bernice Baxter Speaks to Guild Meeting About Experiences Abroad

Dr. Bernice Baxter, now connected with the Oakland Board of Education, was guest speaker at the Church Guild meeting held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Leo Alexander on Via Hermosa. Dr. Baxter spoke of her experiences abroad last year when she traveled for the government.

"If we would all corespond with families abroad, we could do more for international friendship than all the diplomats," Dr. Baxter said.

During the business meeting, a report was made on food and clothing packages sent to Italy and Holland by the Guild.

Co-hostesses at this meeting were Mrs. Challiss Gore, Mrs. Olive Gerber and Mrs. George Neldham.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon in the Carmel Valley. They will live temporarily in San Francisco until housing in Orinda is available.

The bride plans to continue working for Woolsey County Togs indefinitely.

Mr. Curtis is with the Coffey Equipment Service Company in San Francisco.

Lions Report Profit on Show

The Lions Club reported this week that proceeds from the two performances of the Dramateur production of the Whole Town's Talking last weekend were profitable.

Although the crowd was disappointing, due to the prevalance of colds and flu, many people had purchased tickets, Bill Worden said. The profits will provide money for the new basketball courts at the school.

February 12 Is School Holiday

"Yep, school is fun, but, boy, do we look for those holidays," is the concensus expressed by Acalanes students when it was announced last week that the next holiday will be Lincoln's Birthday, Thursday, February 12.

Actually, it will be a two-day holiday for the students, but not for the teachers. On Friday a teachers' institute has been scheduled.

Real Estate Men Foresee Continued Demand for New Old Homes in Area

That there will be no let-up in the demand for both old and new homes in the Oakland and Contra Costa area was the message brought to members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Mart by Ray D. Nichols, president of the Oakland Real Estate Board at their regular weekly breakfast Monday morning at the El Nido restaurant.

Backing up that statement Nichols pointed out that besides the great demand by residents of the area there is an increasing demand on the part of thousands of young fellows who passed through the region during the war years and who, having returned home have married and are coming to this section to make their homes.

Nichols also warned the realtors not to believe all the talk they hear about real estate prices "flopping" as the demand for homes is being felt throughout the country with the greatest emphasis being placed on demand right in this area.

A realtor of many years standing, Nichols stressed the need for close observance of the rigid realtor's code of ethics which he believes will mean the upholding of the profession to the high state it has reached during the past few years.

Thirty-five realtors from the Walnut Creek, Lafayette, and Orinda area were in attendance at the regular breakfast.

Al Ingalls, Contra Costa Realty Mart chairman, announced that John B. Knox commentator and Known as an economist of ability will be the guest speaker at the Mart breakfast next Monday morning at the same place. Mr. Knox' topic will be "Dollars Going Down."

Planning Commission to Conduct 2nd Zoning Hearing Monday Night

The Contra Costa County Planning Commission will hold the second and perhaps final zoning hearing for Orinda Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Grammar School. The official legal notice is published in this issue of the Orinda Sun.

Thomas Heaton, County Planning technician, yesterday said that all members of the Planning Commission will attend. Supervisor Jack Cummings, who is in Florida on a business trip, will return in time, Mr. Heaton stated.

"The Commission is conducting the meeting to hear what Orinda people want. If there are many changes from our original proposals, we'll make new maps," he explained. The Planning Commission will then review the findings and send them on to the Board of Supervisors."

"Our job is to survey all proposals and screen them, finally presenting what is in the best interests of the people."

He added that all Orindans are urged to attend.

Realtors Subdividers Clash With Homeowners over Zoning Proposals

The conflicting interests of Orinda-Moraga contractors, subdividers and land companies vs. local residents broke into the open at last week's community meeting on zoning at the Grammar school, sponsored by the Orinda Association.

Led by Abe Doty, speakers for the land interests urged the community to support their proposals to zone newly subdivided land and acreage not yet subdivided for a minimum of 10,000 square feet, to be classified RS.

PROHIBITIVE PRICES

Fred T. Wood and representatives of the Wallace Real Estate Office and the Moraga Land Company supported this proposal, pointing out that one-half acre parcels of land would be priced beyond the reach of most people who wish to live here. It would be a particular obstacle to young people, they said.

Mr. Doty warned that the tax burden will become very heavy if new land is divided into half-acre lots. Mr. Doty spoke at length and at various times during the evening meeting.

But the large gathering of Orinda homeowners was almost unanimous in voting to ask the County Planning Commission to zone this and most of Orinda's land RA — a minimum of one-half acre.

Local homeowners took the floor time after time declaring they moved to Orinda to get away from small lots, traffic problems, congestion. They urged that Orinda's lands already subdivided as well as undeveloped acreage, with certain exceptions, be zoned RA. They voted approval of the zoning proposals as prepared at a recent meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association and representatives of local improvement groups.

These proposals which provide for certain revisions of the County Planning Commission's tentative zoning plan for Orinda, will be presented at the zoning hearing Monday. In part, the proposals provide:

That Canyon Ranch, Miner Orinda, Orinda Uplands and Fairway Acres be changed from RA to S — (lots of one acre.)

That the business section of the Village and the Crossroads be confined to their present areas.

That business be prohibited from the Moraga-Glorietta intersection.

That Oak Springs, Orinda Oaks and certain small sections be zoned R1 (5,000 sq. ft.) as scheduled by the commission.

That the rest of the established areas zoned RS be changed to RA. This includes Moraga Estates. Woodlands, Glorietta, Park and Manor, as well as other sections.

The second warmest argument of the evening resulted from the proposal that a small business section be allowed at the Moraga Boulevard -Glorietta intersection, as specified in the deed restrictions.

RESTRICTED SECTION

A spokesman for the Moraga Land Company proposed that a covenant be established for the corner lots in question, providing for a restricted business section in the future.

The covenant would provide for strict architectural control with all plans submitted for approval and land for additional road lanes at the intersection to be provided. Sketches of proposed business buildings were passed around.

The spokesman emphasized that although no business is required now, sometime in the future, when the area is fully developed, a small business area will be established, "thus, why not provide now for control over such development."

VOTE AGAINST

Homeowners in the area, however, emphatically disagreed and voted against the proposal. They cited traffic hazards, insufficient parking area, narrow highways and declared that the Crossroads is close enough for convenient shopping.

Ritchie Smith, Association president, presided at the meeting. Edgar Stewart, chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee, explained the changes to be asked of the Planning Commission.

Bill Mott, recently appointed to the Planning Commission, explained the various zoning classifications for single family residences and spoke briefly on zoning procedure. He answered numerous questions during the evening.

GOP Red-faced, Still on Search

The faces of certain Republican party leaders around these parts are mighty red.

As reported in last week's Sun, GOP leaders were considering Vincent Davi, mayor of Pittsburg, as their candidate for congress to campaign aginst Representative George Miller. How far the negotiations proceeded we don't know.

But somewhere along the line, someone suddenly asked, "wait a minute, isn't Davi a Democrat?"

The answer was a prompt no. "We know he's a Rpublican. And anyway, we looked up his registration," was the reply.

Curiosity got the best of them, however, and they double checked.

Sure enough, in precinct No. 6 Vincent Davi was listed as a Republican — occupation, accountant.

But the prospect wasn't an accountant; so they looked further. They found Mayor Davi in precinct 5—a DEMOCRAT!

Now the Republicans are again searching for a good GOP candidate.

The Book Corner

By RUTH FLETCHER
Librarian, Acalanes High School

Neil H. Swanson's novel, "The Unconquered" (Doubleday, $3.00) is the first in his trilogy of American historical novels, similar to the series now under way by Hervey Allen. This premier work will appeal to a wide audience through its whirlwind plot involving the adventurous courtship of Abbey and Chris Holden. The movie should interest many readers who may not be familiar with Mr. Swanson's ability to keep a reader on the edge of his chair.

"Jibby the Cat" by Felix Salten (Messner, $2.50) will carry you off to a world without "power politics, partitions, or split atoms." This story of a household queen and half-savage huntress will transport the reader to a charmed and wonderful world.

Candidates this week for the Best Seller list include Robert C. Ruark's work, "The Grenadine Etching"; Howard Breslin's historical novel, "The Tamarack Tree"; Admiral Halsey's autobiography, 'Admiral Halsey's Story' and Rebecca West's monumental work, "The Meaning of Treason."

With the advent of the baseball season, the usual rash of sport books appear. A new work which will appeal to the sport-minded is Roger Treat's "Walter Johnson: King of the Pitchers" (Messner, $2.75). ..The only authhorized autobiography of Babe Ruth is now being published by E. P. Dutton. The book is tentatively titled "The Babe Ruth Story" as told to Bob Considine ($3.00).

For those who were unable to attend the Coloma centennial celebration, Lee Shippey's "It's An Old California Custom" (Vangard, $3.00) treats this subject in a humorous fashion. Otheto Weston has captured the mood and atmosphere of the Mother Lode Country in his "Mother Lode Album" (Stanford U. Press, $5.00).

The balloting of the New York film critics when they voted for the best picture of 1947 last month brought our attention to the fact that five out of the 6 runners-up of the pictures selected were taken from published material, mostly in book form. To wit—: "Gentleman's Agreement," "Great Expectations," "Crossfire," adopted from Richard Brooks' "The Brick Fox Hole"; the "Miracle of 34th Street" by Valentine Davies; "Odd Man Out," based on the novel; and "The Fugitive," based on the novel, "Labyrinthine Ways" by Grahame Greene.

Boy Scout Week to Be Celebrated with Model Camp Display in Plaza

In order to properly celebrate National Boy Scout Week, February 8th to 14th, Lafayette's Boy Scout Troop No. 204 plans to set up a model camp in the Lafayette Plaza.

The week of events starts Sunday when the Catholic members of the troop will accompany Wright Lewis to the 8:30 a.m. Mass in Walnut Creek. Protestant members will meet Bert Werner at 10:45 a.m. in front of the Legion Hall for services to be attended this year in the Mission Covenant Church.

The Model Camp will be set up in the Plaza and each Patrol will have a day to demonstrate their efficiency in overnight camping, cooking and other items of Scoutcraft. Saturday, February 14 will be a Field Day for all patrols and should include many interesting Scoutcraft skill demonstrations.

Scoutmasters Irwin Cohn and Charles Hoover are jointly responsible for planning "Operation Plaza."

A Scoutcraft display of wild birds and fossils (through the courtesy of Dr. Stirton) will be shown throughout the week in the window of The Emporium..

WEEKEND AT LOS ALTOS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Timoney, their two children, and Mrs. Timoney's mother, Mrs. Stott, had a grand weekend trip to Los Altos.

"On The Air" KMS STATION

Presents — FACT and Fantasy

THREE CHEERS went up at KMS this week at the sight of our first rain in a month.

Talking about the weather usually is reserved for space that otherwise would be void, but after a virtually rainless January, the topic commands top news position.

We need even more rain so maybe we had better start a "snake dance" after all. Maybe it woudn't scare up a significant storm, but it might be a lot of fun.

WHEE-EE! Two carloads of Kaiser have just arrived at Kilbourn Motor Sales. Now is the opportune time to buy yours. Increased production at Willow Run makes these superior automobiles available now . . . no waiting, no unwanted accessories, no trade-in demanded.

If you are driving a car six years old or more, it would be economically advisable to sell it at today's premium prices, before it requires expensive repairs.

With a new Kaiser or Frazer you would have the assurance of safety, economy, comfort, and riding pleasure, with a generous new-car guarantee.

As an example of economy, an unsolicited letter came this week from Lt. Lacey Hagood of Fort Ord, saying, "The Kaiser runs fine and is averaging 26 miles to the gallon."

NEWS TO ME— Harold McCrum's Little Chapel in the Valley basketball team. "Mac" explained that he went to work right after school when he was growing up, so this is his way of making up for the lost time — nice work!

NOTE TO Mothers who think they have a dishwasher in a pair of bobby-sox: Remember when you were that age all the things you could think of doing that seemed so much more important than washing and drying dishes?

I was recently carried back to those days when our neighbors, Charlotte Maloyan and Carol Greub, entertained 24 of the Acalanes senior girls at the Maloyan home in Upper Happy Valley and I had the fun of assisting with the decorations and serving a tea. The affair was to honor Patt Murphy, who is moving with her parents to their former home state of Virginia.

Patt was completely surprised as honoree, and thrilled to shrills upon receiving a silver identification bracelet, inscribed, "From the Donnas."

Confronted with a mountainous stack of dishes after the tea, Carol and Charlotte would have loved a Kaiser Dishwasher to do the complete job from pre-rinsing to drying.

AFTER THREE MONTHS of using her Kaiser Dishwasher, Mrs. Charles F. Bailey of Lafayette is still thanking me for it. (You'd think I GAVE it to her!) They keep their guests fascinatingly entertained with it. But on the serious side, it was a life-saver while her arm was in a cast recently.

WHEN YOU convince yourself that the only sanitary way to wash and dry dishes, glassware, silver, pans, jars, etc., is in the Kaiser Dishwasher, remember where to get it. Just call me at Walnut Creek 3020, or Lafayette 4587, or drop in at Kilbourn Motor Sales, midway between Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

More than 2,000,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America will observe Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6th to 12th, marking the 38th anniversary of the organization. This year Boy Scouts are emphasizing conservation of food and natural resources, planting gardens, safety and fire prevention, home repairs and personal health check-up. Scouting promotes world peace through World Jamborees and practical help among 42 nations with 4,409,780 members. Through its World Friendship Fund of voluntary gifts the Boy Scouts of America helps Scouts overseas to rebuild their units. So far, more than 3,000 tons of equipment have been shipped. Above is the official poster marking the Scout birthday.

AUNT JANE'S Korner for Kids

You know, I think we've missed some very interesting things that have been happening around here. Let's travel around a little and talk to some of the boys who belong to the Cubs and Boy Scouts and see what they have been up to, shall we?

Those Cubs and Scouts are REALLY BUSY these days getting ready for National Boy Scout Week which begins Friday. Don't forget to see their exhibit which will be in the window of the Emporium if you're in central Lafayette. They also want to extend an invitation to everyone who is interested to join them Sunday for a special worship service to be held at the various churches in the area. There will be over 100 Cubs and Scouts attending church together as a symbol of the many fine things they are pledged to uphold.

Believe me, Mr. Werner's five assistants are being kept mighty busy these days planning outings for the boys, and getting those Cubs who are ready to become Scouts through their tests! A trip to the Alameda Airport is planned for Easter Vacation Week, and there will be a play put on later in the year with a boy chosen from each Den taking part.

In Orinda Al Meyers, the assistant Cubmaster, and his committee are planning a big circus night with seven acts to be presentel by each den at the March meeting.

If you should happen to wander up to the turn-around on Oak View Circle any afternoon after school you'll find Kay Dana, Delbert Allison, Jimmy Boyd and Jim Maddox making good use of the basketball standard Mr. Allison has put up for them. Larry Witter and the Maihlo boys join the group whenever they can.

Plans are being made by Marilyn Montgomery and Andrea Babcock to give a little puppet show at Andy's house soon. Admission will be a penny, and the money is to be given to the Red Cross.

Next week I'll tell you all about what some of the Brownies and Girl Scouts are doing.

PLATTER CHATTER

BY PHYLLIS

DON IS ALWAYS making predictions on coming hit tunes — his latest hunch is a recording called "The Dickey Bird Song". This time I'm inclined to agree with him. It's a silly title — but good. The words are a sure-cure for the blues and it's a "bouncy" rhythm from start to finish.

ONE OF MY favorite albums for children is "Bugs Bunny." To the young — or young in heart — who thrill at the flash of Bugs Bunny on the screen (Charles Boyer's much too old for me!) this album is dedicated.

IT WAS WRITTEN especially for Capitol by two of Warner Brothers' top writers, Warren Foster and Ted Pierce. The album contains three different stories featuring Bugs Bunny, Elmer Fudd, Daffy Duck and Porky Pig. Musical background is very cleverly done by Billy May. Your children will love it and so will you!

She was a little Boston Bulldog, smart and pretty, starting across the highway at Hough Avenue, going north. I stopped to watch, my heart in my mouth. Oh! that was close . . . she has gained the middle and is still safe . . . a steady stream of traffic both ways . . . and much too fast.

She is waiting and watching and now has started again . . . that driver seemed to try to hit her . . . now she has evaded another, and making a sudden bolt, she is safely across at the station . . . and my poor tummy is much too low in my body. Acalanes Teen Talk

By HAROLD HARTZ

It's pretty slow at Acalanes now days.

Nothing doing except plans for the future. Mrs. Pedderson, English and Drama teacher, is planning to put on a play for an assembly to be held in the next couple of weeks. Mrs. Pedderson's drama group has entrtained the Parents Club several times this year.

Miss Ruth Fletcher, the school librarian, is working like mad to check in all the text and fiction books belonging to the library.

The Senior class is gloating over the large profit their Senior Extra brought in. All of it is already placed where the seniors can get ahold of it to use for their Senior Ball, which is the social affair every Don and Donna at Acalanes waits for each year.

Mr. Parsons, our principal, has promised us some other speakers who will address us as Dr. Kerner did. Dr. Kerner's speech, by the way, was well adjusted to a high school audience and went over well with the students as he opened his speech with a humorous story about the teen set. Another thing that the Acalanes students were amused at was his gesturing.

Students belonging to the Lafayette Assmbly dance group are looking to their next dance which is to be held Saturday night at the Legion Hall in Lafayette. Last dance which was held January 3 found a good crowd of local Dons and Donnas who enjoyed themselves by dancing and eating refreshments.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Spirit" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, February 8, with the Golden Text taken from Romans: "Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you" (8:9).

The following citations are included in the sermon:

Psalms: "Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me" (139; 7, 9, 10).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is infinite, the only Life, substance, Spirit, or Soul, the only intelligence of the universie, including man" (p. 330).

ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Frank Westfall of Hough Avenue attended the monthly meeting and luncheon of the Ladies of the Knights of the Round Table held at the Virginian in Oakland, Tuesday, January 27.

KITCHEN LESSON

A new generation learns one of the cooking essentials: salvage of used cooking fat. Dorothy Kilgallen, newspaper columnist, shows her daughter, Jill, how to pour kitchen grease into the fat container. The fat salvage campaign, started before Jill was born, is still necessary because the war drained the world of vital supplies of fats and oils.

Lloyd Lorbeer to Speak on India

The assasination of Mahatma Gandhi, India's spiritual leader and Hindu saint, lends special interest to the first-hand account of India's plight to be given by Lloyd Lorbeer Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at Orinda Community Church.

Speaking on the question "Will Christ Win India?", Lorbeer, a layman, will share the experience of thirty years as head of educational institutions at Pasumalai, South India. A firm believer in physical fitness, he keeps himself in top condition by traveling many miles annually on foot and bicycle through Indian villages and pacing younger members of his school in tennis, track, baseball and other sports..

His passion for bodily vigor is exceeded only by his zeal to commend a spiritual type of Christianity to native peoples by every means at his command, and to this end produces annually a five-hour outdoor drama depicting the life of Jesus and witnessed by many thousand persons from every part of the province. While in this country he and Mrs. Lorbeer make their headquarters in Berkeley. He will speak also to Sunday school members at 9:30.

Test Engineer Electrocuted

A test engineer for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company was electrocuted last week when he climbed a tower of a live power line at the Moraga substation.

The victim, C. C. Mozena, of San Francisco, apparently mistook the tower for the adjoining one carrying a dead power line which he had been testing.

The law, as well as common sense, requires that drivers stop for school buses.

Mrs. Howard Fisher presented each members with a bunch of white and yellow lillies and hether which came from her father-in-law's home in Santa Cruz. The club will make flower baskets as a project for this week. Mrs. Fisher took advantage of the lovely flowers to demonstrate the use of this basket.

The regular business meeting next Tuesday will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Miller on Loma Vista.

Varsity in Second Spot, Bees Top County League

The County cage league play for the first half ended with last Friday's games and found Pittsburg in first place with five wins as against no losses while the Dons were in second with four wins and a single setback.

Mt. Diablo of Concord shows three wins and two losses while Alhambra rests in fourth spot with three losses, two wins.

AT THE BOTTOM

John Swett has four losses and a win while Antioch is in the cellar with 0 and 5.

In the Bee division John Swett and Acalanes rest on the throne with four wins and a loss apiece while Pittsburg is in the next notch with a three and two record. The rest of the Bees are well down the ladder and appear to be out of the race.

IN THE STRETCH

Teams start down the home stretch Friday. The Dons act as hosts to John Swett.

The following week finds a change in the local schedule when the Pittsburg Pirates meet the Dons here on Wednesday February 11 instead of Friday, 13. The change was made due to school holidays on Thursday and Friday.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

The strength of the Contra Costa basketball league is attested to by the fact that Alhambra High of Martinez recently defeated Napa High in a doubleheader. It is interesting to note that Napa is currently leading a highly rated North Bay league while Alhambra is battling to come out of the cellar in the local circuit.

OTHER SPORTS

Signs of an early spring are certainly here with an unseasonal advent of sunshine and fair weather the order of the day. An even more potent signal, however, is the preparation under way at Acalanes High School for baseball, track and swimming.

Bids have been submitted for heating the pool, swiming starting blocks are being constructed and painted, the track is cleared of the portable football bleachers and work has started on conditioning the baseball field. When all that happens it means that old man winter is definitely on the move or did he come this way this year?

Another indication is that work is under way on the softball field in Walnut Creek. The Lafayette nine will be back to defend its last year's championship and with several new additions to the roster promise to be in the thick of the pennant race.

NEW CLUBS

Dame Rumor has it that new clubs are planning to enter competition and that one team in particular has gone all out not only to secure first rate gear but a player or two as well. It is further rumored that one certain dispenser of produce in Walnut Creek has brought in some new help in order to win the trophy which has eluded him to date. We wonder if the price of vegetables has gone up as a result of added expense?

There is another story which goes that "once upon a time a man came a long long way to play ball," — but then it had an unhappy ending because it cost money to have that man come a long long way and when he didn't win the pennant he lost his job buying vegetables.

Morale of the story is that when in the vegetable business save your money or you may lose a bal game and then you will go down the road singing, "yes, we have no bananas today."

Lafayette Dogs Make Fine Showing At Golden Gate Kennel Club Show

Among the 1600 blueblood entries at the Golden Gate Kennel Club Show, held at the Civic Auditorium, San Francisco, January 31 and February 1, Lafayette thorobred dogs made an excellent record of wins, witnessed by some 50,000 spectators during the two days.

Reglib Kennels' SIZZLING SENOR, a Wire-haired Fox terrier, went Best of Winners and Best Opposite Sex, making three points towards his championship, and Welsh Terrier Champion Buccaneer of Galliard went Best Opposite Sex.

DALMATIANS SHINE

Dalmatians did their owners and breeders proud, and we are happy to report the following winners: From Trafalga Kennels, Mary Lou Wilkinson's Trafalgas Ebony Tuppence went first in the Open Dog Class, and Reserve Winner in Winners Class. Pearl Bloom's Trafalgas Mr. Dashing Peper went third in Open Dogs. Georgette Irwin's dog, Mr. Barker of Chan Dal Sad, bred by Marie Doty, went first in Novice Dogs. This was his first show, too. Marie Doty's Irish Lace of Chan Dal Sad went second in American Bred Bitches, doing very well for a puppy, and First Lady Coacher went second in Open Bitches.

A most unusual occurrence was a Best of Breed win by a six months old puppy. Barbara Stewart (Samoyland Kennels), took top honors with her Samoyland's Cin-Da, shown for the first time. Cin-Da went first in Puppy Bitches, 6-9 months, Best of Winners, and right on upto gain 5 points towards her championship. Samoyland's Snowmass went first in Bred by Exhibitor Class, and second in Novice Dogs. Soldier Frosty of Rimini went second in Limit Dogs, and Frosty Boy of Samoyland went third in American-Bred dogs.

CHAMPION PARADE

Willard S. Johnson's Boxer, My Gentleman Joe, went third in Puppy Dogs, 6-9 months.

Best Dog in Show was taken by Champion Czar of Wildwood, a Golden Retriever owned by Eric S. Johnson, Woodland Hills.

Big Sur To Be Camp Site for Girl Scouts

Don Varsity and Bees Trounce Antioch Fives to Hold Positions

The Acalanes quintets each added number four to the win column in league play as they took both ends of a doubleheader in games played at Antioch last Friday night.

The local Bees kept in a tie for first place as they extended their win streak and ended up with a final 26-20 score after leaving the floor at the half with a 10-6 score against them.

TEDDY GETS HOT

Teddy Hall pitched three rapid fire buckets in the closing minutes and had a total of 12 for the evenings play.

The varsity game found the Dons leading all the way and at the half mark they lead 21 to 16.

RESERVES TAKE OVER

In the third quarter the Dons pulled away to a 38-22 lead and reserves took over in the late stages of the game to win 48-27.

Buford Feagans hit four field goals and duplicated the count as he hit a hundred percent from the free throw line for a high mark of 12. He was closely followed by Marshall Freeman and Bernie Nelson who had 10 points each.

Four out of Five Seniors Pass Test

Four out of five seniors at Acalanes High School passed the senior math test given January 21, school officials announced this week. Thus, 80 per cent of the 152 seniors jumped this hurdle toward graduation.

All seniors must pass the math test, which was established by the Board of Trustees three years ago. Those who failed the exam are enrolled in a seventh period class until they pass it.

Acalanes Adds New Teacher

To relieve oversize classes in certain departments, an additional teacher was added to the Acalanes union high school faculty as the spring semester opened Monday.

The new instructor is Mrs. Leslie Jeanson. She will serve part-time, teaching classes in general science, biology, and general mathematics.

Mrs. Jeanson is a native of West Virginia, where she recently taught after completing professional preparation at the state university and at Columbia and Ohio State universities.

Citizenship Course To Be Offered

Citizenship education was announced as a new offering when the Acalanes evening school began its spring semester Monday.

Designed to prepare prospective citizens for their naturalization examinations on the principles of U. S. government, the class will be given by David B. Steward, high school teacher, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at the high school.

To assure availability of the course, the board has set aside the customary minimum - enrollment and registration fee requirements.

Other new classes this semester are: beginning folk dancing, analysis of current events, and interior decorating. Inquiries regarding evening school may be addressed to the office at the Acalanes high school (Walnut Creek 4616).

SAVE ELECTRICITY

THE DROUGHT has brought about an emergency in the state's power supply! We are compelled to ask our customers to curtail the use of electricity in their business establishments, on their farms and in their factories.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN HELP

IF YOU RUN A COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENT:
1. Turn off all window lights and electric signs.
2. Use no exterior or interior floodlighting.
3. Use electric power elsewhere only when necessary.

IF YOU RUN A FACTORY:
1. Curtail power consumption wherever you can.
2. Avoid use of electricity between the hours of 4 and 8 p.m., the peak load hours, shifting operations to other hours wherever possible.
3. Check your factory and offices to eliminate all waste of electric power.

IF YOU ARE AT HOME:
1. Light no unused rooms.
2. Use appliances for as short periods as possible.

IF YOU ARE A FARMER:
1. Shut down your pumping plants wherever possible between 4 and 8 p.m., shifting your irrigation schedule to other hours of day or night.
2. Use electrically-powered equipment only when absolutely necessary.

BECAUSE of the record drought there is an abnormal irrigation pumping load in the rural areas. In Northern and Central California this unseasonable demand for electricity now approximates 200,000 horsepower and comes at a time when under normal conditions our system load would be decreasing. The situation in the valleys would, of course, be relieved by heavy rain. Until such relief comes we must ask our customers to curtail their use of electricity in every possible way. Our customers can be assured that we have done and will continue to do everything possible to meet the problems brought about by the record drought.

EVERY KILOWATT HOUR YOU WILL SAVE WILL CONTRIBUTE TO THE GENERAL WELFARE

Your Garden

IN LAFAYETTE AND ORINDA

BY CONSTANCE HANSEN

Tasks for January can generally be continued on into February, but pruning should be finished early in the month. Passing the Sunset Nursery near Danville the other day, I noticed they were giving the long row of Paul Scarlet roses which adorn their fence across the front of the property their annual pruning. These roses are a good example of training for maximum bloom from climbers. Notice how the tips of the long canes are bent down toward the ground, forcing out the lateral branches, which are cut back to 4 or 5 inches at pruning time.

Mrs. Lililan Hill of Oak Hill Road, who has had quite a bit of experience with weed killers, tells me it's easier to apply them with a sprinkling can that with a sprayer. With the sprinkling can there is less danger of the spray being carried by the wind to plants one does not wish to eradicate. Of course the weed killer should not be applied on a windy day, but if you depend on hired help, and can't wait until the air is still, the sprinkling can method will save your plants.

Now is a good time to apply a complete fertilizer to the perennial border and around established shrubs, so that the food will be there when growth gets under way. Give your roses and citrus fruits a layer of barnyard manure a couple of inches deep around each plant.

This is the season to set out new perennials as well as woody plants. Some good hardy perennials that increase and grow in beauty from year to year are platycodon, or balloon flower, a relative of the canterbury bells, perennial phlox, daylilies, and for shade the Christmas and Lenten roses or hellebores.

A DIFFERENT HEDGE

If you're looking for a hedge that's really different, one that can stand hot sun or high shade, and can be left unpruned or not as you choose, investigate the possibilities of the native California Summer Holly. It has clean shiny foliage the year around, spikes of white urn-shaped blossoms which later turn to spikes of small orange-red berries, and as far as I know, has no pests whatever. It's in the same family as the manzanita and madrone, and is known botanically as "Comarostaphylis diversifolia."

February is the beginning of our main seed-growing season, which brings up the subject of catalogues. Now is the time to study them and get your seed orders in. If you aren't familiar with this special branch of literature you are missing a lot of entertainment, whether or not you like to grow plants from seed.

My favorite catalogues come from Vaughan's, Rex Pearce, and Burpee, whose addresses are in most of the home magazines. Rex Pearce leads the field in the introduction of new species of plants whereas Burpee specializes in bigger and better varities of old favorites, while Vaughan's select from both groups and add beautiful illustrations.

There are lots of other interesting catalogues including Park's from South Carolina, Oscar Will's from North Dakota, L. L. Olds from Wisconsin, as well as those from the larger seed firms in our own state such as Ferry-Morse, Germain, and Lagomarsino. It's fun as well as educational to get acquainted with all of them, and try a few packets of seed from each, incidentally spending hours reading the alluring descriptions.

PLANTING VEGETABLES

In your order for vegetable seeds include plenty of corn. Most catalogues now list a collection of hybrid varieties that planted at the same time will bear over a long season, and I strongly recommend taking advantage of one of these offers. Unless you want to grow a lot of tomatoes or an unusual variety, it's a lot easier to buy the started plants than to fool around raising your own seedlings. Cucumbers, especially the lemon variety, and muskmelons are well worth the space they occupy and the small amount of care it requires to raise them here. If you haven't grown any before the aroma of the muskmelons you raise yourself will amaze you.

If the spring season continues dry, the sooner you get in those new shrubs and trees the better. Also the ground is getting very dry, and some things need watering right now. Remember the bulbs too, especially daffodils, which make their flowers for next year before the leaves die down, as they won't be able to do much in the way of flowers next year, if they barely have enough moisture to leaf out and flower this spring.

IN SANTA CRUZ

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fisher spent last weekend in Santa Cruz visiting the family.

ORNUZ

Do It Now

If you haven't already done so, prune and spray your roses and fruit trees. Prepare ground for that new lawn that will be planted in April.

Tip Of The Week

Prepare the soil for your pansy bed before planting. A generous amount of humus builder or animal fertilizers will help to produce those large beautiful flowers you have always wanted to grow. Plants almost ready to bloom are now available. These are far better than average plants, as they are grown from premium priced "jumbo pansy seed".

A Look Into the Future

If you plant flowering shrubs such as Forcythia, Weigelia, or lilacs now, you will be rewarded by a mass of color in your spring garden.

The Neighbor Near or Far

MOST people concede that one should mind one's own business, but few do it. One reason for this may be a general vagueness on the whole big subject of one's individual responsibility to himself and to others.

Paul said (Galatians 6:2), "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ." Yet he added (6:5), "For every man shall bear his own burden." How can these words be reconciled?

Individual consciousness underlies and governs individual experience. The burdens of daily life are the responsibilities of one's own thinking. Both the cares and the opportunities call on individual resources. But one's sense of existence takes in much beyond oneself. Its range may be world-wide, embracing neighbors near and far.

When one begins to see that his consciousness of others can always provide an opportunity to bless them, he begins to see "the law of Christ" fulfilled. John (1:9) speaks of the Christ as "the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." Christ Jesus proved this universality of good. His works confirmed his teaching that God, good, is the Father of all men.

One who ponders Jesus' words and works sees that to think helpfully of others is the only way to think of them. Since God is the Father of all, true consciousness must always bear witness to His allness. By this test a hateful thought, an indifferent or selfish thought, is not really true. It is a suggestion in place of a fact, an illusion rather than an idea.

Jesus' entire ministry turns the follower, indeed, to a wholly new concept of man, an utterly fresh view of himself. It shows him that the composite of finite, fearful, self-centered thoughts usually referred to as a mortal caricatures existence. It reveals to him man's perfect selfhood, not of the flesh but spiritual, not temporary but eternal. The burden of material life—its struggle, effort, uncertainty, and frustration—melts into nothingness as one begins to recognize and claim the glory of everlasting Godlikeness.

How different from what one formerly supposed, then, is the consideration of minding one's own business. For a very different business comes to view. Here is a spiritual activity, a beautiful procedure, involving not callous indifference to others, nor overzealous concern for them, but the actual bringing forth of one's own Godlikeness.

Both selfishness and busybodiness are rooted in the belief that good is limited. One wears blinders only if he fears that another's demand will overtax him. One rushes in to help unasked only if he fails to see how God Himself can help. But the perception that man is God's own son relieves one from such extremism. It makes generosity natural for him. It gives him the grace of properly timed reserve.

When self-centeredness, self-consciousness, and self-importance yield before the fact that God, good, is the Father of all, vision expands. As Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, once wrote to The Mother Church (Message for 1902, pp. 8, 9), "Spiritual love makes man conscious that God is his Father, and the consciousness of God as Love gives man power with untold furtherance." . . .

Today people everywhere, in countries suffering from the ravages of war and in countries struggling with problems of peace, need to awaken to the infinity of God. The follower of Jesus knows that his own prayer to become more actively conscious of God's infinite goodness is helping to bring the answer—the proof that God is good. God is creative; His law, as the Psalmist says, converts the soul and rejoices the heart, not of one only but of all. . . . —The Christian Science Monitor.

P.G.&E. Appeals For Conservation Of Electricity

An appeal to the public to conserve power in every possible way was made today by James B. Black, president of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, who said the lack of rain and snowfall and the unseasonal irrigation pumping load have brought about an emergency in the state's power suppy. Ways in which the public can cooperate in the curtailment may be found in an advertisement in this issue of the Sun.

Mr. Black's statement follows:

"Some time ago I called attention to the effect on the power supply of the deficiency in precipitation this winter and particularly in the amount of snow on the ground, which is relied upon to maintain stream flow in the late summer. I stated that this deficiency, combined with the inability of manufacturers to deliver needed electric generating equipment on schedule, plus the rapid growth in demand, had created a very serious power problem for the next nine months.

"We are just now receiving the first large turbo generating unit which was ordered when our construction program was initiated in 1945. It is expected that this unit of 100,000 horsepower will be installed and placed in operation in our new Kern plant near Bakersfield in April. Altogether 525,000 horsepower of new generating capacity will become available in company plants in the next twelve months. In addition, during the same period, at least 200,000 horsepower will be placed in operation by the Bureau of Reclamation at the Shasta and Keswick plants of the Central Valley Project.

"This very large addition to the generating capacity to be brought in during the next twelve months will total more than twice the expected growth in power demand in this area. With the additions to our transmission and distribution system now under way it should give the area adequate power facilities at the end of the twelve months period.

"Our customers can be assured that we have done and will continue to do everything possible to meet the problems brought about by the record drought."

Keeping Open the Doors to Higher Education

People once had the idea that a man stopped his education when he enlisted in the Army. Today just the opposite is true. As a matter of fact, the man in uniform has almost unlimited opportunity to achieve a higher education than he had when he entered the Army.

The Army maintains some of the finest technical training schools, teaching scores of skills and trades. There are specialized courses in advanced subjects. No matter where a soldier may be stationed throughout the world, his schooling goes with him.

In addition, there is the U. S. Armed Forces Institute, which teaches a broad range of courses by means of standard texts, self-teaching texts and correspondence methods. Many thousands of Army men have gotten high school and college credits by this spare-time study.

It is a splendid thing for the youth of America, many of whom have been disappointed in their educational ambitions, that the Army is doing so much — so well — to keep open to all young men the doors to higher education.
